IN THE MATTER OF an application for search order

BETWEEN CHAIN & RIGGING SUPPLIES LIMITED
 Applicant

AND JUSTIN DOUGLAS WERAHOKO
 NIKORIMA
 First Respondent

AND RAPIDO SAFETY SOLUTIONS LIMITED
 Second Respondent

Hearing: On the papers

Appearances: P Amaranathan, counsel for applicant

Judgment: 23 August 2023

JUDGMENT (NO 2) OF JUDGE B A CORKILL

[1] Yesterday, I issued a judgment granting a search order,¹ which included the authorisation of certain redactions to one of two affidavits which had been filed, that of Mr Lance Davis.

[2] Today, Ms Amaranathan, counsel for the applicant, has sought further redactions to the second affidavit, that of Ms Jacqueline Edwards. The proposed further redactions relate to annexures containing a customer list and sales information, including customer names, as well as references to Mr Nikorima's sales figures and revenue within the body of that affidavit.

[3] Given the circumstances I reviewed in my first judgment, it is appropriate to extend the redactions direction as sought.²

[4] An amended draft order has also been filed incorporating the proposed further redaction, which I approve.

[5] I also amend the direction contained in my judgment as to the documents to be served. For the avoidance of doubt, these include the two judgments of this Court, the draft statement of problem, the affidavits (but with the redactions proposed), the application for an order, all of counsel's memoranda, and the undertakings, together with the approved search order.

[6] This judgment is not to be published other than to the parties, their representatives, and to the authorised persons who are to execute the search order, until further direction from the Court.

[7] Costs are reserved.
